DEDICATION

TO CHARLES E. KNAPP, who has given twenty-three years of untiring service to Delta High School. We, the Senior Class of 1945, feel it is indeed a great pleasure to dedicate this annual, to him. As teacher of the Seventh and Eighth grades, Mr. Knapp has achieved high goals for our school. Included in these are the debates and plays he has written for the Junior High students to give at general assemblies and other public gatherings. These were very successful. We are sure that everyone who has had Mr. Knapp as a teacher will agree with us. He is an O. K. guy.

LIBRARY

The library is a source of information for all the students of Del-Hi. During study hall periods, good use is made of the large variety of the books that are to be found there—reference books, drama, travel, fiction, adventure, biography and magazines. The rural students are allowed to borrow books from school, while those who live in town use the Public Library.

The library is under the supervision of Mrs. Staehling and Mrs. Johnson, assisted by student librarians.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

APRIL 20, 1945

Seated on floor: Ed Kuntz Jr., Willard Sampson, Paul Clair, Jack Alcorn, Kenneth Wolcott.
Seated: Virginia Stromberger, Marianne Seeley, Barbara Shelt.

"You Can't Take It With You," the stage and screen success by Moss Hart and George Kaufman, is a portrayal of a way of living. The zany Sycamore family, headed by Martin Vanderhof, "Grandpa," has stopped trying to keep up with the Joneses. Their fascinating philosophy of life, "Live and let live," is reflected in all the furnishings of the Sycamore living room. They definitely are happy in their moronish fashion, until the wealthy Kirby family injects an unharmonious element. Tony Kirby falls in love with Alice who is different from the other Sycamores. With all their oddities, she loves her family. She tells Tony that their marriage just would not work. And so the conflict. Which way of life will have to bow before the forces of true love?

SCHOOLMATES FOR TWELVE YEARS

The class of 1945 is proud of its seventeen students who have been going to Delta Public School for twelve years. These people have set a new record as to the number who have spent twelve years at Delta, more than fifty per cent of the class.

One of these seventeen students is now in the United States Navy. We all know him as Jim Deck.

The seventeen students have many pleasant memories of grade and high school days to carry them through life. They are all the best of friends.

Now as they take leave of Delta, some to go into the Armed Forces, some to war jobs, we wish each one a prosperous and happy life to come. And a speedy return home.

CLASS WILL

Being possessed of the usual unsound minds and unruly natures, we, the pompous, gracious, brilliant, ardent, always well-mannered and dignified Seniors of the class of nineteen hundred and forty-five, have condescended to be so gracious as to bequeath the following precious possessions to the underclassmen:

CONRAD BOWERMAN: I hereby donate the match I carry around in my mouth to the Fire Department.

WILMA BROWN: I bequeath my Ishish bangs to Dick McKibben.

BILLIE ANN BURT: I gladly give my hair to anyone who has enough hairpins to put it up.

PAUL CLAIR: When this was written I had the mumps. Does anyone want them?

RUTH CONRAD: I will my calmness to Oleta Deck.

WILMA COOPER: I donate my artistic ability to Nita Yurkewitch who already has an ample amount.

VIRGINIA COX: Unselfishly I give my auburn tresses to Jack Alcorn.

JIM DECK: Upon Eugene Krieger I bestow my Pepsodent (with Irium) smile.

HAROLD DEMALINE: To Bill Sindel I leave my football ability: I'm in the Navy now.

RICHARD ELTON: I shall bequeath all free nights to any girl who can keep up with me.

OPAL FRANK: To Lynn Sintobin I give my wavy locks.

HAL GEER: I will my ability to get the family car to Dick Granger.

VERNON GLORE: To Richard Mizer I leave my 5 o'clock shadow.

FLORENCE GRIESINGER: I will my talent for stacking dishes to Jeanne Hepler.

BUDD KNAPP: To anyone who thinks he can break it, I relinquish my half-mile record.

ED KUNTZ: I transfer my ability to stay single to Blaine Spiess.

VIRGINIA LEHMAN: I appoint Darleen Frank sole custodian of the Lyric Theatre.

HAROLD LEU: To Bob Livingston I hand down my ability to get along with teachers, especially Miss MacDonald.

ALICE MAY McQUILLIN: I generously leave my vocal and instrumental ability to Ernie Raker.

LAVERNE NJAIM: To whom, with all submission, on my knee I do bequeath my faithful services to Mr. Teegarden — to Ellen Mann.

CLASS WILL

EILEEN OVERMYER: I hereby leave my vocal talent to Donna Jean Brown.

DON POORMAN: To Leland Robertson I bequeath my debate skill.

SHIRLEY SAGERT: With no regrets, I will my freckles to Rose Harmon.

WILLARD SAMPSON: I will give anything to anyone, except Julie Ann — I'm going to keep her.

MARIANNE SEELEY: To Ellen Mann I leave the editorship of the Green and White (it's only natural). Furthermore, I will my spilling ability to Marilyn Falor.

BARBARA SHELTON: I hereby bequeath my loyalty to the Navy to Pat Keesling . . . and Donna Jean Brown!

KEITH SHELTON: I transfer all the empty milk bottles to David Beatty.

ROBERT STINE: I will my No. 78 position on the line to Bob Crisman.

VIRGINIA STROMBERGER: I hereby commit upon Ted Hunt my shortness.

SALLY TROMPE: I transfer my middle name to anyone who can guess it.

HEARL WHITMER: I hand down my height to Pee Wee Frank. He can use it.

KATHRYN WHITMIRE: I will my class ring to the Sophomores.

PAULINE WILEY: To next year's basketball team, I will my athletic ability.

KENNETH WOLCOTT: I transfer my Trig. book to anyone who thinks he is brainy enough to work the problems.

Second row: Mrs. Burris, Leland Markley, Doris Ridenour, Izetta Ernsthansen, Joan Favorite, Betty Harmon, Joyce Shelt, Joan Fraker, Winifred Haller, Lois Segrist, Emma Jean Dodge, Pat Keesling, Darleen Frank, Marilyn Falor, Mattie Richards, Maxine Rhoads, Bill Sindel, Eugene Krieger, Mr. Teegarden.

The most outstanding event of almost any Junior Class is the class play. This year the Juniors proved to be no exception, their class play, "Ever Since Eve," was presented with great success.

Industriously they managed the concessions at all the home football games, saving for the annual Prom.

The Juniors chose their class rings in September and received them as an early Christmas present during the latter part of November. The class was unanimous in choosing the style of the rings . . . for a change.

Nor was their social life lacking. On Valentine's Day the Juniors and Sophomores had a skating party. Several of the teachers were a bit shaky on their feet, but all-in-all the party was by no means a flop.

These lively undergraduates are piloted by their six class officers and two sponsors.

PRESIDENT.....	JACK ALCORN
VICE PRESIDENT.....	HARLEY BOWERMAN
SECRETARY.....	ANNA MARIE CHRISTENSEN
TREASURER.....	DALE IRWIN
STUDENT COUNCIL.....	BILL SINDEL, ELLEN MANN
SPONSORS.....	MRS. BURRIS, MR. TEEGARDEN

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Second row: Mrs. Gens, Richard Frank, Robert Mattin, Deryle Stiriz, Richard Clay, George Green, Joan Fraker, Emma Jean Dodge, Anna Christensen.

The play, "Ever Since Eve," takes place in the office of the new editor of the high school paper, Johnny Clover. Susan Blake, Johnny's school-mate, is elected assistant editor of the paper. Susan and her girl friend, Betsy Erwin, decide to take over and publish the paper their own way. They would have succeeded doing this if a little Southern belle, Lucybelle Lee, had not interfered. With the mix-up of the Swapping and Barter system and a few cases of measles, things are finally straightened out and every one is happy.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Second row: Mr. Dambach, Leland Robertson, Harold Rhoads, Margaret Mull, Willeta Pangle, Leota Eldred, Grace Spiess, Pauline Skates, Betty Finney, Doris Reckner, Lily Reckner, Betty Baker, Roy Vandock, John Baumgartner, Richard McKibbin, James Falor.

Third row: Earl Vance, Albert Mattin, Bob Crisman, Ramon McQuillin, George Ells, Merrill Koos, Roswald Shrull, Glen Mohler, Orville Stevenson, Bruce Reimer, Bob Brown, Myrl Bratton, Stanley Yurkewitch, Lynn Sintobin, Cecil Davis, Miss MacDonald.

The Sophomores were especially noticed during the basketball season because of their activity in the concession stands. They sold us our eats and drinks at every game except the Swanton vs. Delta game.

After two football games (the Holland and Wauseon games) they sponsored a dance. Although they did have fun doing it, their main purpose for these achievements was to raise funds for future use.

On February 14, 1945, the Sophomores had a skating party with the Junior Class.

Mr. Dambach and Miss MacDonald are their class sponsors. Officers are:

PRESIDENT.....	BOB BURT
VICE PRESIDENT.....	ERNIE RAKER
SECRETARY.....	JACK BUNDY
TREASURER.....	JOHN MANDLY
STUDENT COUNCIL.....	JON WALTZ

JOKES

Where did you come from, Freshie Dear?

Out of babyland into here.

Why are your eyes so glassy green?

'Tis thru the eyes the soul is seen.

Why do you dodge around the wall?

For fear I'll meet a Senior tall.

How came you to us, Freshie Dear?

In a baby cart—ma brought me here.

Mr. Hilty: What invention has done most to elevate the human race?

Kenneth W.: The elevator, I suppose.

Doctor: Did you follow my advice and drink hot water one hour before breakfast?

Jack A.: I did my best, but I couldn't keep it up more than ten minutes, doctor.

Mr. Knapp: Do you know what becomes of foolishness?

Bob K.: Why yes; they become Juniors.

Miss MacDonald: Do you ever pause and reflect on the opportunities you have missed?

Dale I.: No, it would be just my luck to miss some more while I was reflecting.

Salesman: How did you happen to have that accident with that used car I sold you?

Blaine S.: I couldn't put out my hand while I was pushing it around the corner.

Senior: I don't like these photographs at all. Why, I look like an ape.

Photographer: You should have thought of that before you had them taken.

Bright Soph: Quick! Run and stick your head in some water.

Green Freshey: Why, what is the matter?

Soph: Oh, I smell wood burning.

Mr. Dambach: Harold, leave the room.

Harold R.: You didn't think I'd take it with me, did you?

Oleta D.: Is the editor particular?

Pat H.: I should say so. He raves if he finds a period upside down.

A mule has two legs behind, and two he has before; you stand behind before you find what the two behind be for.

Zeke: I want a tooth brush.

Clerk: What size?

Zeke: The biggest and best you've got. There's ten in my family.

Mr. Welch: And how does it happen that you decided to come over here to school?

Freshman Spendthrift: Well, I won a ring with a D on it with cigar coupons and they wouldn't exchange it.

She: I am going to study Spanish because I am going to Spain.

He: Guess I'll have to study the Bible then.

"Yep, I had a beard like yours once and when I realized how it made me look, I cut it off b'gosh."

"Wal, I had a face like yours once, and when I realized that I couldn't cut it off, I grew this beard, by heck."

CHEER LEADERS

Not pictured: Nita Yurkewitch, Pat Seeley.

Vim, vigor and vitality. What words could better describe our Cheerleaders? Without them, the spectators could have never shown their enthusiasm for our football and basketball teams. Cheerleading certainly isn't an easy job. When things began to look not so good for our team, the cheerleaders got right out in front of us and made us lots peppier and a little more in the mood for the game. Our games couldn't have had that certain spirit if it hadn't been for you. Thanks, loads, kids!
